VICTORIA INDUSTRIES.

The Lumber Trade--Sayward's Saw Mill--A Large Output.

A Busy Hive of Industry--Enterprise and Push--Labor-Saving Machinery, Etc.

If a person wishes to gain a knowledge of the extent of our local building and lumber trade he should pay a visit to the extensive saw mills at Rock Bay, belonging to one of Victoria's most enterprising citizens from away back, Mr. W. P. Sayward. These premises occupy a well chosen site for saw milling purposes. The booms and other water facilities for the handling of large rafts of the immense logs that here crowd the waters of the bay, are very convenient, and shows that the firm know how to take full advantage of the facilities afforded by nature for the purpose. The mills cover an extensive front towards the Esquimalt road bridge, and the large area of ground is covered with the ever-increasing and decreasing output of the mills. The lumber appears to be removed by the teams of the numerous purchasers as fast as it comes from the ever-busy saws, which speaks volumes for the business done in this branch of trade. The Rock Bay Mills being the only real lumber manufacturing concern in the city, are being at present put to their utmost capacity, which proves that Victoria is progressing at all events in the building line. Entering the office of the firm on Constance street, Mr. Sayward, jr., kindly takes THE TIMES representative under his wing and conveys him over the premises. We are shown into the engine rooms, where two powerful engines, manufactured especially for the firm by the Albion Iron Works, of 18 and 24 inch stroke respectively, work with smoothness and ease, and are a credit to the Victoria machinists art. The steam is supplied from a large pair of boilers, 54 in. by 25 ft., made by the Albion Works also. Ascending to the top flat, we observe the powerful bull wheel for hauling the immense logs up the skidway to the saws, two circulars of 60 in. diameter, where, being canted to the carriage, are consigned to the tender mercies of the fast revolving disks, and in an increditable short space of time falls to pieces in scantlings, planks and boards. The log being squared and dressed by the circular, if wanted for inch boards is turned over to the set of gang saws adjoining, which cuts it up into 27 inch boards with lightning rapidity. These saws are of the latest modern improvement, manufactured by Stearns, Erie, Pa. The lath and shingle machines are busy; great is the rapidity with which they shall cut lath and shingles. The "gang" edger of four saws by the Stearns firm is a marvel of mechanical contrivance, as also are the lately added emery wheel, saw swage, etc. On the ground floor we were shown the planer, capable of turning out 10 thousand feet a day of tongued and grooved flooring, siding, or dressed boards. In fact these mills are complete in every respect and possess every contrivance for the economy of labor. Outside the main buildings is a furnace lately erected for the cremation of the sawdust and other refuse. The Rock Bay Mills turn out some 50 thousand feet per day, and attain a yearly output of 13,000,000 feet. The firm has logging camps of their own on their extensive limits at Cape Mudge, Valley Island; besides they purchase largely from other logging camps in order to keep up the supply for the great demand put on their capacity. There are some 20 to 30 hands (all white) constantly employed in the logging camp, while there are 35 men (a few Chinese) employed at the mills. The monthly pay sheet amounts to $2,000. The trade is strictly confined to home consumption, consequently the exports are nil. Everything about the mills and yard appeared to be tidy and orderly. The work went on with regularity, without any hitch or mar, which speaks well for the excellent management of the concern, in which Mr. Sayward, sr., is ably assisted by his son, who, for affability and courtesy, with a sense of dry humor, is calculated to make a tour of inspection of this or any other manufacturing process agreeable and pleasant. Such was our experience of yesterday.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

Numerous Topics Discussed—The Indian Difficulty, &c.

"Where are you going, my pretty maid?" "Oh, I'm going, kind sir," she said, "to leave this bouquet for that dear Town Major of ours," and she did. Thanks. The Major is fond of flowers and everything that is beautiful.

Sauntering along the classic regions of Rock Bay we saw an eagle perched on a dry goods box. He glanced and knowingly winked, viewed us up and down, as much as to say, "So you're our Town Major, are you? You're a nice looking old sprig for a Major, anyhow. I've long been looking out for you. Oh, yes, I'm a bird of prey, and all us birds of prey, night hawks, owls, buzzards and city vultures, would like nothing better than the picking of your old bones." With that he made a vicious snap at the Major's kindly hand stretched forth to appease his majesty's wrath. We left him ruffling and pluming his feathers. There are many of his kind in the world.

The Major met our Doctor (late of the Social World) yesterday and asked him for the loan of the white "plug" and the stick. Armed with this imposing outfit, The Major would be irresistible, invincible! It was no go; the Doctor requires their services for a little while longer. The next nigger troupe that comes to town, The Major will endeavor to catch hold of the Drum Major's bearskin "plug" and staff. See if he doesn't then outdo any Doctor, military or civil.

"How like Victoria," said a medico, fond of handling the dental forceps, "they wouldn't let me up that staircase because there's a dentist up there." Well, it doesn't matter. Keep away from the social world; "the nearer the church the farther from God."

The Indians are by law the wards of the Dominion Government. If they do wrong the Government must at once both prosecute and defend the culprit. To illustrate the incongruity of the thing: some Indians in the Northwest when at starvation done, killed some of the cattle on their reserve belonging to the Indian Department. The agent instructor went before a J.P., swore out an information and had the red men hauled up—; he delivered his evidence for the prosecution before the magistrate and then cross examined himself and wound up to the astonishment of the court by giving evidence in the prisoners defence! So our Federal Government are bound to fight the Indians and defend them at the same time.

The weak excuses put forward of tribal law and custom for murder can't stand before the majesty of British law. That law must, to be effective, be administered with a firm hand. If Sir James Douglas permitted a chief to go scot free for a murder, simply because it was a tribal custom, he did wrong. So did Clive, and Hastings, and Governor Wall, and many others, but they were called to account for it. Two wrongs never make a right. In our own day had the murderer of poor young Greybourne, at Fort Walsh a few years ago, when brought to trial, received the well deserved punishment which he didn't, owing to the weakness of the jury and the authorities for peace sake, the rebellion of '85 would never have taken place. Vacillation and timidity, as a medicine for the red man, produces most disastrous effects.

Who will foot the bill for the grand excursion to the Skeena. It will be a pretty big one by the time all the braves return. If they don't soon come back there's not a Major or Colonel of any kind but will be off. '85 and expenses are not to be sneezed at.

Mr. John Inkster, H. B. C., Hazelton, whose letter was copied from the Winnipeg press a few days ago, has had some experience of Indian turbulence. Johnny is a good boy of the Red River kidney, well educated and intelligent, as a scout unequalled in the Saskatchewan country. He was employed as chief scout and guide to General Middleton in '85, and worked his way into Prince Albert, through the lines of rebel picquets. His knowledge and any hints of the Indian character should receive attention.

THE TOWN MAJOR.

SPORTING NEWS.

The Willow, the Ring and the Diamond--Other Events.

The cricket match between Victoria and Vancouver will be played at Beacon Hill on Monday, August 6th.

Replying to O'Connor's challenge to row for the championship of America, Teemer says he will accept, but not for less than $2,500 a side.

The following eleven will represent Vancouver against the Victoria team in the coming match to take place in this city: Rev H F Clinton, Messrs. Nelson, Elwood (captain), Green, Townley, Freeman, Loutit, Prenter, Wilkinson, Schofield, Rand, Fripp; reserves, Elliott, Beck, Garrioch.

John Teemer writes proposing a sweepstake boat race at the end of the season between O'Connor, Gaudaur and himself, each to put in $2,500 and the winner to take all the stakes and 60 per cent. of the net gate receipts and the purse. The second man to get the remaining per cent. of the receipts and any purse that may be offered for second position.

Yesterday's St. Paul despatch says: Pat Killen to-day arranged with "Hank" Adams, of the Chicago Sporting Journal, who is now in St. Paul, to post on August 10th, a forfeit of $1,000 for a fight to a finish with Jake Kilrain for $5,000 aside, the fight to be under the Marquis of Queensberry rules, with the smallest gloves allowed.

Should the Australian and New Zealand lacrosse team come to British Columbia, as stated in last evening's TIMES, a match game will probably take place on Beacon Hill. The team from British Columbia would consist of twelve of the best players from Vancouver and Victoria. We are confident that B. C. would make a good showing.

The sports at Wellington, postponed from July 4th, will take place to-morrow. A number of athletes from Victoria will leave for Wellington to-morrow morning. The Nanaimo band will furnish music and a dance will be held during the evening.

The following members of the Amity base ball nine were born in this city: W Duck, T Burnes, F Jackson, S Schultz, Geo Gowen, Gus Gowen, and Geo Borthwick. C N Gowen and T Baker, were raised in this city, and the claim to the name of being a real home team is correct. The Vancouver and New Westminster teams were all eastern men. The only run made by the Mets in the game on Tuesday was by Haggerty, a Victorian who kindly volunteered to take the place of a Vancouverite. The James Bays are all native born and residents of one ward in this city.

FROM NEW WESTMINSTER.

Bonuses for Workshop and Ferry--Mr. Stramberg Re-appointed.

NEW WESTMINSTER, July 27.—At a meeting of the board of aldermen, held last evening, a by-law was passed granting a bonus of $75,000 in aid of establishing a foundry and other workshops in this city in connection with the Westminster Southern Railroad. Also a by-law was passed granting a bonus of $75,000 for an adequate ferry service on the Fraser river in connection with the said railroad. Both by-laws will be submitted to the ratepayers for their ratification on the 7th of August.

At a meeting of the School Board, held here last evening, H. M. Stramberg, B. A., was re-appointed principal of the New Westminster high school.

MURDER AT DONALD.

Donald, July 27 — William Archer, principal in the rape case at the assizes here, was shot dead at Golden to-day at noon by one Kennedy, a witness for the prosecution, who claimed it was in selfdefence. Archer attacking him with a hoe. Kennedy gave himself up on the coroner's inquest being held.

Prof. Menzies' Bail.

At 4 o'clock p. m. Prof. Menzies was still in jail, awaiting bondsmen to relieve him. A number of prominent citizens were ineffectually appealed to; but his counsel, Mr. Gannaway, expected to get him out to-night.

FOURTEEN DROWNED.

Three Rivers, Que., July 21.—A voyageur just arrived here brings tidings of a dreadful drowning accident to a party of lumbermen, of which he was a member. The drowning occurred, he states, on the Mattawana river, which enters the St. Maurice, some fifty or sixty miles above Piles, a post on the St. Maurice, twenty miles or so from this place. The narrator formed one of a gang of forty or fifty who were engaged on the log drive for one of the lumber firms doing business here. About three weeks ago the drive was at one of the rapids on the Mattawana, and the men had procured some whisky from the canteen. With this they got exhilarated, and in a drunken freak, decided to run the rapids. Accordingly, one of the log driving boats was run out into the stream. Fourteen men boarded her. The bowsman and steersmen were, as is usually the case, half-breeds, and in their sober senses would have found no difficulty in running the rapids safely. With song, etc., they shoved the boat off and all went well until the middle of the rapids was reached. Then those on the bank saw the steersman take out his paddle for an instant. This was fatal, as the current, which was terrific, swung the boat round broadside and over she went, throwing her load into the seething waters. Those on shore made all the attempts possible to rescue their unfortunate comrades, but to no purpose. The water was high, the rocks numerous and the current so swift that it was impossible to get at them before the whole boatload was drowned or dashed to pieces on the rocks, which abounded. Efforts were made to recover their bodies and ten of them were found. The drowned men hailed principally from this vicinity.

CABLE NEWS.

O'REILLY REMANDED

Dublin, July 26—O'Kelly, the journalist and member of the Commons who was arrested in London on Tuesday evening for alleged offences under the so-called crimes act, was tried to-day and remanded for a week. He was released on bail.

A MILLIONAIRE ASPHYXIATED.

Chicago, July 26.—Robert Henderson, of Silver City, Idaho, said to be a millionaire, was found this morning in a room at a little hotel called the Ogden House, unconscious and barely alive. The gas in the room had been blown out instead of being turned off. Theories of foul play and attempted suicide were evolved. Henderson remained in a comatose state for hours, notwithstanding the efforts of physicians. Nothing could be learned from him. The doctors are unable to say whether or not he will recover.

THE BULGARIAN THRONE.

London, July 27—At Vienna there are rumors that Emperor William and the Czar have agreed to propose Prince Waldeman, of Denmark, to succeed Prince Ferdinand on the Bulgarian throne. The Kaiser hopes to be able to induce King Christian to consent to their choice. Prince Waldeman was elected before by the Sobrange, but his father refused to grant his consent to his accepting the throne.

WILL SUE THE TIMES.

London, July 27.—A report is gaining ground that Parnell is likely to sue the Times for libel. He is seriously considering the matter but is unsettled whether to bring the issues here or in Dublin. The Gladstonians are opposed to this course. Parnell argues that his position will be worse before the commission than a court, and assumes that if he sues the Times the commission will be dropped.

AN AUTUMN SESSION.

London, July 26—Mr. Smith asked the assent of the House to an autumn session. It was necessary he said, for the civil, army and naval services. He trusted the House would pass the county government and Parnell commission bills. The House agreed to adjourn on August 11th and will reassemble in November.

LORD WOLVERTON'S WILL.

The will of the late Lord Wolverton, who was Postmaster-General in the Gladstone Government, has been proved invalid, and the whole of his immense fortune passed into the hands of the collateral branch of the late Baron's family. Lord Wolverton was a prominent member of the English Home Rule party, and some of his bequests were designed to benefit that cause. The decision of the court on the matter has caused intense chagrin and disappointment among the legatees designed by the will.

FRANK STANLEY'S DEFEAT.

SWEDISH MOURNING.

Stockholm, July 27.—Emperor William, accompanied by King Oscar and Crown Prince Gustaf, of Sweden, Prince Henry of Prussia, and Count Herbert Bismarck, drove to a number of places this morning. They inspected Katharina elevation, the national museum and telephone station. On returning from their drive the party took luncheon at the castle. They afterwards visited the Riddarsholgkyrrka, where the ashes of a long line of Swedish monarchs are deposited.

POISONED BY BUTTERMILK.

Wichita, Kansas, July 26—Yesterday the household of Daniel McCarty, consisting of his wife, four daughters and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Heushaw, were poisoned from drinking buttermilk. Five doctors have been laboring with them and succeeded in saving the lives of Mrs. McCarty and her three daughters. The others will die. It is thought the milk has been allowed to stand in a copper vessel and thus became poisoned.

CLEVELAND GOES FISHING.

Washington, July 26.—The President, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Folsom, Postmaster-General Dickenson, and Colonel Lamont left Washington this morning for Jersey City. After arriving there the party will separate, the ladies going to Marcon, Mass. The rest of the party will embark on a yacht for a fishing excursion, making Bath Beach, Long Island, their headquarters. The President and Lamont will return to Washington on Monday.

TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR ROBBERY.

Portland, July 25.—Saturday night last a package containing $10,000 was given in charge of the Pacific Express Company by the Commercial National bank, consigned to I. W. Case, banker, of Astoria. The package was placed in the express box and given in charge of B. S. Strobel, purser of the steamer R. R. Thompson. On Sunday morning the box, which arrived intact, was at Astoria opened by N. B. Thing, an express clerk, but the money was missing. C. P. Upsher, the agent at Astoria, immediately telegraphed the agent here, but diligent search failed to discover the missing coin. The shortage was made good by the express company. No clue to the supposed theft has yet been found.

Portland, Or., July 27.—The clerk, Kergerderson, of the Pacific Express Company, was arrested and confessed to stealing the ten thousand dollar gold package shipped to Astoria on Sunday. The money was recovered.

It was largely attended, many prominent people being present. Robert G. Ingersoll delivered a beautiful address, extolling the character of the deceased. Previous to his death Palmer said: "I want you one and all to tell the world that you have seen a Freethinker die without the least fear of what the hereafter may be."

The murder was committed on the street while the girl was returning from a visit to her home. The weapon used was a small knife which penetrated the girl's heart. The cause of the crime was the girl's refusal to marry Emmon.

THREE MEN BURNED TO DEATH.

Ballaine, Ohio, July 27.—Two frame houses in the mining town of Maynard took fire yesterday afternoon, while Tom Prosser, his son and two brothers named Morgan, were asleep in one of them. Prosser, his son and one of the Morgan brothers were burned to death, the other brother escaping with a broken limb by jumping from the window.

Obituary.

The many friends of Mr. Herbert Harrison will be pained to learn of his death which occurred at Vancouver about four o'clock this afternoon. Word came this morning that he was very low so that to his friends the news of his death was not wholly a surprise. Death was caused by inflammation of the bowels. The deceased was a young man 25 years of age, a native of Illinois, from which State he came to British Columbia with his widowed mother about ten years ago. His only relatives in the province were his mother and a sister, Mrs. S. Sandover, of North Saanich district, both of whom were at his bed-side when the end came. Herbert Harrison was an ideal young man. Straighforward and upright in all things, he was loved and trusted implicitly by everyone who knew him. For several years he has been in the employ of Messrs. Croft and Angus, who testify to his excellent business qualities and noble, generous character.

THE MENZIES CASE.

Now that Prof. MENZIES has returned to the city and has been arrested upon one of the charges preferred against him, it is to be expected that all the offences with which he has been accused will be sifted by the authorities to the very bottom. No sham prosecution or farcical trial will remove the wide-spread belief that the so-called "Professor" has been a party to the sale of Chinese girls to Chinamen. The proofs laid before the public by THE TIMES at the time the exposures were made, when Menzies secretly left the city and betook himself to the United States, are obtainable by the police. Upon them devolves the duty of working up the case, and not, as Mr. GANNAWAY seems to think, upon private individuals. If after a fair and full trial, during which all the facts will be unearthed, Professor MENZIES is honorably acquitted and declared innocent, the TIMES will cheerfully make the apology which will then be incumbent upon it. But not before that time. Editorially we do not propose to say any thing that will prejudice the case against the prisoner, and will leave the matter with those who are charged with the enforcement and administration of the law. Mr. TAYLOR, as city barrister, will have charge of the prosecution, and will see to it not only that all the counts in the indictment are properly prepared but that all the evidence obtainable is produced in court. The present charge, he is no doubt aware, does not cover the whole ground. A rigid examination may lead him further into the mystery than is now anticipated and evolve facts that may startle the Christian sentiment of the community. In this work he will receive the warm support of every right-thinking citizen.

VERY "CHILDISH."

Our morning contemporary has received a very pointed snub from Mr. THEODORE DAVIE, Q. C., on account of the suggestion, to which we referred yesterday, that judges of our Supreme Court should be "pursued" for costs in respect to those cases wherein their judgments were reversed by the Supreme Court of Canada. Mr. DAVIE, in a brief letter, says that every thinking man must condemn the Colonist's article, and adds: "Your suggestion that a judge should be pursued for costs when his decision is upset is childish." Most people will agree with the late Acting Attorney-General. Our contemporary tries to escape from the position by declaring that it had no intention of making the rule invariable, but only wished to apply it to cases similar to the one under discussion—the JOHN case. The Colonist thus changes its position from the frying pan into the fire.

HITTING THE NAIL.

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer, writing upon the Skeena trouble, hits the nail pretty fairly on the head, as follows: "The Skeena Indian revolt, which, by the way, creates more talk in the east than in British Columbia, filling the papers with stories of the ungovernable and blood-drinking Metlakahtlas and allied tribes, illustrates the bad policy of sending a carpet-bagger deputy sheriff among the wild natives of the north. An Indian had killed a medicine-man whose treatment of the former's two children for measles had terminated fatally. The father, KIT-WAN-COOL JIM, felt it his parental duty to remove the medicine-man whose lack of skill was so evident, and did so. Thereupon the deputy sheriff, attempting to arrest KIT-WAN-COOL JIM, and meeting resistance, shot him dead. Now it is well known that a medicine-man undertakes cure of the sick at risk of his own life should the case terminate in death. This being so, and the killing of a native physician by bereaved relatives of a deceased patient being looked upon as a venial offense, KIT-WAN-COOL JIM's crime should have been passed over more lightly. But a carpet-bagger, in any position, is a law unto himself; and the frightened women and children of beleaguered Hazelton, listening to the war-drum's midnight serenade in the camps of the painted Skeena Indians, fully realize this."

The crop prospects of Western Ontario are more favorable than for the eastern part. Recent rains have done a great deal of good. Fall wheat cutting has commenced in some portions.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Colonist frequently refers to the TIMES as a Grit paper and to its editor as an ultra Grit. Will our contemporary oblige us by defining at his leisure his own political status. There was a time, and not very long ago, when he was a Grit. Was he sincere then or is he insincere now?

In the Manitoba elections the other day four former citizens of Brantford were successful candidates. All four are Liberals. Hon. L. M. Jones, Provincial Treasurer, member elect for North Winnipeg; Mr. Isaac Campbell, at one time a student in the law office of Hon. A. S. Hardy, member-elect for South Winnipeg; Mr. Samuel Jackson, member-elect for Rockwood; and Mr. S. J. Thompson, member-elect for Norfolk, have each been residents of Brantford.

The tomb of the family of Sophocles has just been discovered a mile and a half from Paleokastron, in Greece. It is mentioned by his biographer, and was built in the fifth century before Christ. It contains three funeral urns, the first containing the remains of a woman, identified as such by a mirror found with them; the two others, from other evidence found in them, are supposed to be the burial places of two young men. There were no inscriptions.

It is remarkable that the great Pan-Presbyterian council at London has unanimously approved a report recommending the organization of an order of deaconesses. It also listened without dissent, it is said, to a paper by a Presbyterian minister of Ohio who advocated the adoption of a liturgy. One of the speakers went so far as to advise that the services should be made complete without sermons and that the people should kneel and not sit during prayer. These are indicative of great changes in sentiment that have come over the Presbyterian body within the last few years.

It will be very gratifying to Scotchmen to learn that the great industry, shipbuilding, is reviving on the Clyde in Scotland. There has been a very long spell of dull trade there; but it would now seem that the tide has at last turned and that good times have again decidedly set in. All reports indicate a period of activity and prosperity. The returns of the last six months are especially encouraging. Since the beginning of the year 117 vessels of an aggregate tonnage of 98,281 tons have been launched, as against 107 vessels of 92,971 tons during the corresponding period of last year, and 99 vessels of 83,645 tons in 1886. Last month, alone, 25 vessels, aggregating 21,236 tons, were launched, as against 18 vessels of 17,071 in June last year.

Carlvin S. Bryce, the chairman of the Democratic national campaign committee, has outlined the plan of campaign. Bryce said: "The struggle will be a campaign of intellect. I believe the people of the country are tired of personalities and it will be my aim to prevent all personal abuse from our side during the canvass. The party that tries to gain a vote by circulating lies about its opponents will certainly be defeated. We intend to send documents all over the country and rely on the good sense of the people for success. While showing the weak points in the political records of the Republican candidates, we will let their private lives alone."

The working of responsible Government in Hawaii is developing some peculiar features. At the recent opening of the regular session of the Legislature, King Kalakaua, who, by the way, is said to have been spending his days for some time past in disgusting drunken orgies with certain of his followers, at first refused to read the speech which had been prepared for him, because it recommended some measures which he did not approve. His ministers reminded him that, the Government being "ministerial," he was not personally responsible, but he continued moody and obstinate, and when finally induced to read the speech, took care to omit the passages to which he objected. The probabilities are, however, that the Government will go on without being very greatly affected by his personal views, which, as may be supposed, are not remarkable for intelligence. Should he be so ill-advised as to use too freely or vigorously the personal right of veto which is his in virtue of a recent decision of the Hawaiian Supreme Court, he would probably find the expedient a rather dangerous one in the present temper of his not very loyal or admiring subject. The revolution which has been for some time imminent in the Islands would be pretty sure to be precipitated.

The London Daily Telegraph says: The practical objection to swearing is its coarseness, its ugliness, its tendency to disfigure speech, and to make social intercourse brutal, for cats and dogs and wild beasts substantially swear when they growl and snarl and spit lingual fire at one another. To swear is in most instances a sign of stupidity and poverty of speech. There are many records of wise men who have used bad language, but every fool can swear. Not only grown men, but raw lads and mere boys revel with almost absolute impunity in the foulest and coarsest of language. But, for the sake of strict impartiality, this much justice must be done to the English rough—that he is, as a rule, not so horribly blasphemous in his speech as the American or the Frenchman, the Spaniard or the Italian. Stupidity and filth are the staple of the ribaldry of the English blackguard, whereas the Transatlantic loafer and hoodlum exhausts his ingenuity in devising new and complicated formulæ of irreverence, while the lower classes among the Latin races habitually draw their oaths from the more awful mysteries of religion. From that reproach the Anglo-Saxon communities are generally free, but they are terribly prone to take their Maker's name in vain, and to yell in and out of season terms of vulgar and idiotic profanity and obscenity.

COWICHAN NEWS.

Personal Mention—Marriages on the Tapis—Improvements, Etc.

Farmers are actively engaged, and seldom, for many years, have they been favored with such heavy hay crops. This feature, too, is noticeable, that they are taking long strides towards intelligent and improved standing in their calling. Where not long ago the scythe held laborious sway, the mowing and other machines produce sounds not at all dissonant to the harvest men. Foremost among these may be mentioned Messrs. Nightingale, Corfield, Smith, Robinson, Bole and Dougan.

Buildings are still being put up—Mr. Corfield is building a barn 150x100 feet.

Steady work is being done at the Rock quarry. Fishing is among the first of home enterprises. Improvements are noteworthy on the Districts roads.

Mr. Wm. J. Sutton, government assayer, is for a few days among us. Miss Annie Wilson, of Victoria, is enjoying our scenery and climate at the residence of Mr. Bole, Cowichan Flats. We hope she may return to her home and studies, with renewed vigor.

Mr. James Dougan, jr., has spent a part of his holidays on the farm, and the muscular exercise cannot but tend to his fuller education.

Masters Walter and George Englehardt are scanning the field and forest, to their full enjoyment. Mr. Porter, of Cobble Hill, is their host.

One marriage has just taken place; but better to note, a large number are on the tapis, extending alike to the youthful and those more advanced in life's pathway. These include farmers, magistrates, operators, teachers, and we did not quite catch it whether a minister or a doctor. Every joy follow each couple, and a long life withal.

SENATOR OGILVIE'S VIEWS.

The Most Beautiful City—The Monopoly of Coal, &c.

Hon. Senator Ogilvie, after returning from Victoria to Montreal, was seen by a Gazette reporter, to whom he spoke as follows:

"I look upon Victoria as the most beautiful place for a private residence I have ever seen in my life, and I have travelled as much as most people over this earth of ours. I found the people more than kind. One gentleman drove us around for two days and I saw a good deal of the Island of Vancouver. The Government stores there are in splendid order and are splendidly managed. They have there some of the finest torpedo boats ready to be launched at a moment's notice and in perfect order. They could arm and accoutre half a dozen men-of-war from the stores on hand. The situations for houses and private residences on the island are unsurpassed. The people are suffering from one of the worst monopolies that ever existed. Although there is any amount of coal within seventy miles and it could be delivered in the city for $4 a ton a company has got control of it and charges $10 a ton. Last winter they were charging $15 a ton. Two live men could upset the monopoly in a week, but the people have so little enterprise that they put up with it."

"What is your opinion on the Chinese question?"

"I think it is wrong to prevent the Chinamen from coming in. The land cannot be cleared and cultivated until they get Chinese labor, and we put an embargo on the immigration of Chinamen by charging them $50 each. They can't even follow up the salmon canning industry properly without Chinamen. This is not hearsay, for I have been among the canning men and visited several of the canneries, particularly Laidlaw's and they say themselves they could not get along without Chinamen."

STREET BEGGARS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—There is in this morning's Colonist a letter on this subject signed "B" in which the writer makes a mistake as to the position of the B. C. Benevolent Society in regard to itinerant mendicants, his expression of opinion as to the duties of the Society in regard to such matters being apt to cause a wrong impression. I am desirous of setting it right. The Canadian law enacts that all persons who go about begging or seeking alms from door to door, or place themselves in any street, highway, passage or public place, to beg or receive alms, must have a certificate signed by a priest, clergyman, or minister of the gospel, or justice of the peace residing in the municipality where the alms are being asked, that he or she is a deserving object of charity. It is therefore undoubtedly the duty of any of the gentlemen who are so authorized, to grant such certificates, to see that the public are not being imposed upon and to hand the applicants over to the police if they are imposters. While it is not therefore, in any way the duty of the Benevolent Society to interfere with vagrants or street beggars, the by-laws of the society provide that "The Relief Committee or one of the members thereof, shall enquire into all applications for relief and see that the society is not imposed upon by false representations; they shall also enquire into all cases of distress which may be reported to them." The names of the Relief Committee or other information in connection with the society, I need hardly say, I shall at all times be happy to give. As regards the legless woman who was singing her doleful dirge upon our streets yesterday, whoever gave her a certificate, I have no doubt did so in a pure and humane spirit, but she is reputed wealthy and well able to dispense alms herself. If such is the truth of course a very flagrant case of imposition has been perpetrated, and it is to be hoped will not be allowed to occur again.

SALVATION DRUMMERS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR—That Salvation Army drum is a nuisance and should be stopped on the streets on Sundays. During divine service in some of our churches the Army march along shouting and pounding on that arrangement in a manner which causes considerable unfavorable comment. Last Sunday, whilst the thermometer was 76 degrees in the shade, the drummer was out three times in the sweltering sun endeavoring to knock a hole through the devil-scaring machine. If this is consistent with religion I would like to know what we are coming to. It is all very well to preach about working horses on Sunday; but no horse ever worked harder than the Salvation Army drummer did on Government street on the last Sabbath day. It is also ridiculous to see a woman with two sticks beating on a kettle drum. The Army have been treated very well in this city and they should consider that the ridiculous figure they cut on our streets on the Sabbath day is tolerated by the law although contrary to its provisions.

The Appetite

May be increased, the Digestive organs strengthened, and the bowels regulated, by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills are purely vegetable in their composition. They contain neither chlomel nor any other dangerous drug, and may be taken with perfect safety by persons of all ages.

I was a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was constantly afflicted with Headache and Dizziness. I consulted our family doctor, who prescribed for me, at various times, without affording more than temporary relief. I finally commenced taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time my digestion and appetite my bowels were regulated, and, by the time I finished two boxes of these Pills my tendency to headaches had disappeared, and I became strong and well.—Darius M. Logan, Wilmington, Del.

I was troubled, for over a year, with Loss of Appetite, and General Debility. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and, before finishing half a box of this medicine, my appetite and strength were restored.—C. O. Clark, Danbury, Conn.

Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered Stomach and Liver. I suffered for over three years with Headache, Indigestion, and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was weak and nervous most of the time.

BY USING

three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured. My digestive organs are now in good order, and I am in perfect health.—P. Lockwood, Topeka, Kans.

Ayer's Pills have benefited me wonderfully. For months I suffered from Indigestion and Headache, was restless at night, and had a bad taste in my mouth every morning. After taking one box of Ayer's Pills, all these troubles disappeared, my food digested well, and my sleep was refreshing.—Henry C. Hemmenway, Rockport, Mass.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but give me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John, N. B. ††

CORNER LOTS.

BY ROBERT HOWE FLETCHER.

Having administered which little cut, Tulita turned her big dark eyes severely upon the still tarrying Mr. Benton. Brown, convinced now that their visit had displeased the young lady, also turned and glared at the cause of his discomfiture. What was their surprise to find that Mr. Benton had restated himself and that he and the senora had apparently launched into an extended conversation.

"Are you coming, Benton?" said Brown, impatiently.

"In a minute, my dear fellow," replied his friend; "I have just discovered that Mrs. Lunavarita and I have a whole lot of mutual friends up in San Francisco."

And the senora herself, turning to her daughter, confirmed this in quite an animated way, repeating several names, evidently those of the friends referred to.

Then Mr. Brown's eyes sought Tulita's with such solemn protest that she in her turn could not help smiling. Common politeness forced her to say, "Will you not sit down?" But no, Mr. Brown would not sit down; he preferred to do penance standing. Then he looked so unhappy, casting gloomy glances at his friend, which that gentleman ignored, that Tulita finally began to feel a little pity for the young man. Perhaps she had been too severe. After all he was very evidently a gentleman, and was not bad looking, and he had the good taste to appreciate her lavender sticks. And so, after a little hesitation, she ventured to ask him if he was a stranger in San Diego. She almost laughed again to see how grateful he looked for this bit of condescension. In fact this young man was so modest and courteous—so different from his companion, for instance—it was really a pleasure to encourage him a little. Then gradually Mr. Brown ceased to cast remonstrative glances at his friend, and presently, when he saw that he was keeping Miss Lunavarita standing, he consented to sit down.

It was growing dark when Mr. Brown again arose to his feet and exclaimed, peremptorily, "Come, Benton, we must go! I don't know what Mrs. Lunavarita and her daughter will think of us."

Now, even if Mrs. Lunavarita's daughter had cared to give expression to her thoughts just then, she was the next moment rendered speechless by her mother's behavior. Giving Mr. Benton her hand as he bade her good night, the senora said, in a pleasant and vivacious manner, "Good night, senor. I shall look for you to-morrow at 10 o'clock, and then we will take our little ride."

After leaving the house Mr. Benton and Mr. Brown plodded along through the dusk and dust in silence for some minutes. Then Mr. Benton said, "Women are strange creatures." To which trite remark his companion made no reply. But, having arrived at the end of his reflections, and broken the silence, Mr. Benton continued: "Do you remember my telling you, Frank, that I had a sort of superstition that your $3 investment was going to bring us luck?" And as Brown assented, with a nod of his head, "Well, I think it has, though I had no idea when I inquired the name of your friends, of the people next door, that the luck was all ready, laid away in lavender, as it were, waiting for us to come and get it. Mrs. Lunavarita has 200 or 300 acres of land over on the sea shore. What do you think of that? It is the same old story. They once owned leagues and this is all they have left, and they have got that, as Mrs. Lunavarita says, because it is not worth anything, although she is wrong there. At any rate she is holding it for her daughter, hoping that it may be worth something some day. It is all they have got. Two thousand dollars is the highest figure she has thought of. If it is anything like she describes it, and if she will let me handle it, I propose to make it worth $100,000 in the next year."

"Look here, Tom," said Brown, impulsively, "if you do get hold of this thing, you will do the best you can by Mrs. Lunavarita, won't you?"

"My dear fellow," said Mr. Benton in a rather cold tone, "is it necessary to ask me that? I am not a devourer of widows and orphans."

"Oh, hang it, don't be touchy," said Brown. "You know I did not mean anything like that. Only these two women are so lonely, and innocent, and plucky, they really have made quite an impression on me."

"I noticed that one of them seemed to," replied Mr. Benton, dryly, "but I did not observe the other had. As for the proposition, if everything turns out as I expect, it was a lucky day for Mrs. Lunavarita when I knocked at her door. And now let us quit work for the day, and go and have a respectable dinner as a send off for the new firm of Benton & Brown, real estate dealers."

A year and a half have elapsed. It is Christmas Eve. Once more Tulita is watching the sun set, but this time from another home, where Point Loma does not intervene its huge bulk, where she can see the golden disc slipping down between the blue of the Pacific and the blue of the evening sky, until the last burnished tip disappears. Then the soft warm air is filled with rich color as the afterglow stains sky and water with its hues. Turning away, Tulita proceeds with her occupation of gathering roses which this celestial pageant had interrupted, while the air grows heavy with their perfume. Behind Tulita is a large so called "Queen Anne" cottage, and on the veranda sits her mother, lazily rocking and fanning herself. Next to the senora sits an elderly gentleman, and on the back of the elderly gentleman's chair leans Mr. Brown, of Philadelphia. As Tulita passes the side of the porch, she dexterously tosses a rose to the elderly gentleman, and laughs, as he successfully catches it, and presses it to his lips with a gallant bow.

"Well, well, well," he says, breaking the silence, "imagine being out of door without a wrap, gathering roses on Christmas Eve. And you really mean to tell me, Frank, that this place has been set out only a year?"

"Yes, sir," replied the young man, "just about. You see, father, in this country water is everything. If you can only get plenty of water, things grow like magic. I remember that is what worried us most when we put Lunavarita town lots on the market, water was the great question, and we were afraid we would have to pipe it from town. But as soon as we struck that artesian well we were fixed. The property doubled in value in twenty-four hours, and we sold enough lots the first week to pay for laying out the town, putting down water and sewer pipes, and subsidizing a street car line to run a motor out here. After that the people used to come and stand in line all day long at our office waiting to buy lots. We raised the price religiously on the first of each month, and now you can't buy a lot in Lunavarita for less than $300. Water is king in California. There is a company formed to flume it down from the mountains about sixty miles from here; it is a good scheme, too."

"It must cost a great deal," said the elder Mr. Brown, doubtfully.

"Oh, no," said his son, "a million ought to do it."

"A mere trifle," said the old gentleman, mimicking Frank's airy tone. "Upon my soul," he continued, with sudden energy, "if I stay here much longer I shall be as stark, staring mad as all of the rest of you are. Why, they tell me that that peninsula over there, with that absurdly big hotel, which they will never fill in the world"—"All of the rooms are engaged already," murmured Frank, but his father, with a snort of incredulity, proceeded without heeding him—"with its parks, and its drives, and its zoological gardens, and God knows what, begging your pardon, madame, they tell me that that was a sage brush desert last year. I don't believe it—I won't believe it!"

"My dear father," said his son, "two or three years ago San Diego itself was little more than that—you could have bought pretty near the whole place for a short bit. But a railroad came in here and that brought people, and when the world at large began to find out what a magnificent harbor"—

"There, there!" exclaimed his father, hastily, "don't get started now. I have heard all about the harbor."

"And the glorious climate!"

"Yes," said Mr. Brown, emphatically, "and the climate, too."

"I am afraid you don't appreciate it, though," said his son, reproachfully. "Just think of the Boston east wind to-night and compare it with this air, where you can feel your lungs grow. Why, I believe I have sprouted an extra one myself since I have been here."

"I believe that you have, my dear boy," said the old gentleman, chuckling, "from the amount of talking that you do, I believe that you have. Eh, senora, I rather think I got him there! Did you hear that, Tulita, my dear? Ha! ha! ha!"

At this moment a carriage was seen coming up the hill toward the house.

"Ah!" cried Tulita, "here comes Aladdin."

The carriage stopped, and Benton descended. Tulita, waving the bunch of roses before his face, bade him good evening.

"Well, sir," said the elder Mr. Brown, "and how many towns have you built today?"

"Not many," said Benton, laughing. Then drawing from his coat pocket a package of papers, he handed it to Mr. Brown, saying: "Here are your deeds and abstracts; they are all right!"

"What!" shouted Frank. "Father, have you"—but here he burst out laughing. "Father," he continued, regaining his gravity, "father, look me in the eye. Is it possible that you, you, a conservative merchant of Philadelphia, have, at the present ruinous prices, been indulging in wild, insane speculation, that you"—

"There, there, Master Frank," said his father, joining in the laughter; "we all know that you have sprouted an extra lung."

"Don't mind him, Mr. Brown," said Benton. "You have got a bargain. As soon as you get your vines well under way one year's crop of raisin grapes will pay for it."

"Oh, of course, of course," said the old gentleman, "it is a bargain. They all are, though to my mind," he continued, putting his arm around Tulita and drawing her to his side, "this is the best bargain ever got in Southern California."

"Yes," said his son, looking at his wife proudly, "and to think that I only had to put up $3 for the option."

"Men are so conceited," said Tulita, contemptuously to her father-in-law; "that was not the way of it at all. It was I who gave a dozen lavender sticks for a husband and the town of Lunavarita."

TO THE INCREDULOUS.

There was Never the Man Who was Fooled or Humbugged—He Humbugs Himself.

The human race affords in itself a most singular study. There are among the many class of thinkers, those who repose too much confidence in others, too little confidence in themselves, or no confidence in anything. The man who knows it all himself, the man who thinks somebody else knows it all and the man who thinks he knows who knows it all. The egotist, the simpleton and the skeptic. Recognizing the fact that people require more substantial evidence than mere words and promises, Drs. Darrin resort to the most legitimate method of advertising themselves by advertising their cures. That those among the community may be afforded an opportunity of investigating before calling in person upon the doctors, the following testimonials are published bearing evidence of the doctors' ability and skill as well as success.

DEAFNESS CURED IN TEN MINUTES.

Mr. Editor—Dear Sir: I reside in North Yakima, W. T. I consulted Drs. Darrin for deafness. My left ear was totally deaf. With one operation with Drs. Darrin's electro-magnetic cure, of ten minutes, I was made to hear as well as ever in my life. Can be referred to as to the truth of my statement.

C. V. FOWLER.

AN OPEN LETTER.

SEATTLE, W. T.

DRS. DARRIN—Gentlemen: I now take the pleasure of writing you that after a full course of your electro-magnetic treatment I am entirely cured of a pain in my chest which has troubled me for over eight years. Having been under treatment by doctors of Liverpool, Glasgow, Calcutta and San Francisco, none of them did me any good until I came under your treatment, which I am sure has permanently cured me, for which, gentlemen, I beg to remain,

Yours gratefully,
WILLIAM LITTLE.

ASTHMA AND OPIUM HABIT CURED.

MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir: I have been troubled with asthma for the past thirteen months, so bad as not to be able to do a day's work, and have suffered "torments of the damned." The paroxysms were so severe that my life was many thought to be despaired of. I had tried everything, and a great many physicians. In order to get relief I had to resort to morphine, until I had contracted the habit. I put myself under their electro-magnetic treatment. Now, after several treatments, I am entirely cured of my asthma and the morphine habit, and I have no craving for the drug. I can be referred to at the McKenzie House, foot of Marion street, Seattle, W. T.

H. A. JOHNSON.

CURE OF CATARRH AND VARICOSE VEINS.

TO THE PUBLIC: For ten years I have been troubled with a very disagreeable catarrh and bronchitis. I finally got so bad that I had to give up my business of ranching and riding for my stock. The catarrh extended to my lungs and stomach. My physicians gave me up as incurable. Last October I came to Drs. Darrin, and now, after three months' treatment, I consider myself so far restored as to be able to do all my own work. Before treatment I had to give up horseback riding, and could not attend to my stock at all; now I can remain in the saddle all day without fatigue. My wife had also been troubled with dropsy, milk leg and varicose veins, so she could only walk with the greatest inconvenience, and it was painful to the touch, and finally broke out in a running sore. Drs. Darring sent her medicines, and to our glad joy, she is entirely cured.

Refer to me at Sprague, W. T.

FREDERICK MOHS.

The above gentleman, Mr. Mohs, owns a farm of 2700 acres and hundreds of cattle and horses, and these statements coming from a man of undoubted integrity, and whose reputation for veracity is above suspicion; must be admitted as positively true.

SCIATIC RHEUMATISM CURED.

MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir: For nearly a year I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism, and was so bad as to be unable to sit upon a chair or to get around, and suffered tortures indescribable. I came to the Drs. Darrin, Seattle, W. T., and went under their electro magnetic treatment and home treatment. I now consider myself entirely cured. Can be referred to at Port Blakely, W. T.

S. F. HOSKINSON.

DEAFNESS AND DISCHARGING EARS CURED

TO THE PUBLIC: I have been troubled with deafness and a discharge of one ear for over twenty years, and have tried everything. I placed myself under the Drs. Darrin's electro-magnetic treatment and I am now cured of my long standing trouble. I cheerfully recommend the doctors to afflicted humanity. Can be referred to at Stuck Junction, W. T.

JOHN WOLFLIN.

OVERFLOWING TEARS CHECKED.

TO THE PUBLIC: For a number of years I have been troubled with overflowing of tears down my cheeks, and have been operated on a number of times by a physician without success. Called on the Drs. Darrin at the International Hotel, Cherry street, and they operated upon my eye, and I now feel great relief for the first time in fourteen years. I can be referred to at 1351 Railroad street, Tacoma, W. T.

MRS. A. J. QUENTAL.

A CERTIFIED CURE.

This is to certify that I have been troubled with weak eyes for over a year past, and with a constant pain over the eye and ball, and was almost blind at times. I went to Drs. Darrin and put myself under their electro-magnetic treatment, with the happiest results, as I consider myself cured. I can be gladly referred to at White River, W. T.

JOHN MULLEN.

OFFICE HOURS AND PLACE OF BUSINESS.

(The Drs. Darrin also have a branch office at 235 Fifth street, Portland, Or., where any in that vicinity can consult them.)

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover a hat our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous. *

THE ABERDEEN.

Description of the Steamship—Largest Cargo Yet Brought to Inlet.

The steamship Aberdeen, which arrived at Vancouver on Wednesday, belongs to the famous Aberdeen line known as the White Star Line, from the flag carried, and owned by the firm of George Thompson & Company, Aberdeen and London. She is barque rigged and clipper built, of iron throughout. Her engines are triple expansion of 2700 effective horse power, the Aberdeen being the first vessel to be fitted with that class of engines. She was built on the Clyde by the well known firm of R. Napin & Sons. Although having enormous carrying capacity, (the Aberdeen enjoys the distinction of having taken the largest cargo of tea, 6130 tons, that ever entered the port of London) her lines are so fine and she is so beautifully modelled that she looks more like a fine steam yacht than a merchantman. The Aberdeen brought the largest cargo ever brought into Vancouver, consisting of 3,425 tons measurement, 54,494 packages of tea, and the following passengers: From Hong Kong, W. E. Jennings, Liverpool. From Foochow, Mrs. Robertson, three children and two servants, Vancouver. From Shanghai, D. A. Darling, London. From Yokohama, R. G. Townley and servant, Vancouver; and R. McLeod Cameron, New York. Nine second-class passengers, Chinese, and 534 Chinese steerage, destined as follows, 427 San Francisco, 47 Victoria, 36 Portland, 4 Seattle, 3 Port Townsend, and 17 New York. Her cargo consists principally of tea and is consigned as follows: New York and other eastern U. S. points, 1,271 tons of tea, 182 tons miscellaneous; Montreal and other eastern Canadian points, 1,009 tons of tea, and 25 tons miscellaneous; San Francisco, 102 tons of tea. Victoria, 8½ tons, Vancouver, 26½ tons of tea; Pacific Coast points, 800 tons miscellaneous. She also bring 233 packages of silk for New York, 3 for Victoria, and 1 for Montreal.

Caledonian Society.

The Seattle Caledonian Society will hold their annual picnic and games about the end of August. The Victoria and Vancouver societies will take part and a steamer, probably the Islander, will be sent to convey members and their friends to seattle.

Slowest Thing in Creation.

Complaints still continue to be made about the Victoria-Seattle and Victoria-Tacoma mail service. Letters mailed in Victoria say on Sunday evening quite occasionally take till Friday evening to reach their destination in Seattle. Next to our somnolent morning contemporary the service is about the slowest thing in creation.

Provincial Appointments.

The following appointments are announced: Edward L. Kirkland, assessor and collector for New Westminster district and city; John James Nunns, of Campbell River, justice of the peace for the county of Nanaimo; and Reginald H. Pidcock, of Alert Bay, justice of the peace for the counties of New Westminster and Nanaimo.

The Schoolmaster Abroad.

The following ortho-graphical curiosity was received by a firm in this city. The fact that it was understood proves how elastic the English language is and to what extent it can be trifled with and still retain its meaning:

"Pleas to send the meadson coreect acordin to this Reseet. Pleas to send Hit with out delay. By expres and send the quantey acording to the Amount of 3 doarers witch I incloss in the leater and Pleas to Return back the Reset."

The New Buildings.

Messrs. Fisher & Wilson, architects, yesterday awarded the contract for the brick buildings on Douglas street to Elford & Smith. The buildings will be two storeys high with a frontage of 80 feet on Douglas street. The work will be completed on or before October 1st. The construction of these stores will make a continuous block of brick buildings from Yates street to Johnson street, including the Clarence Hotel and Odd Fellows Hall.

New Mill.

The Fader Brothers, says the Vancouver Herald, are applying for a license to lease a certain tract of land in Blind Bay, Cortes Island, northeast of Cape Mudge in the Straits of Georgia, in all about 320 acres. We learn a large portion of the machinery ordered from Ontario by this enterprising lumbering firm, valued at rather more than $20,000, is now on its way to Vancouver, and is expected to arrive at almost any moment. The extensions to the mill at the foot of Granville street are still being carried on, and it is evident that the Fader Brothers intend to take a leading place in the lumbering industry of our city.

Indian Barbarities.

The Juneau Record of July 19th contains the following: "Last Thursday Lon Smith, special deputy marshal, arrested Yato Hok, second chief of the Takou Indians, for murder. From the evidence it appears that a woman had gathered certain herbs and administered them to the wife of a chief, from the effects of which she died. After the death of the chief's wife Yato Hok gave orders that the woman should be put to death, and accordingly a system of torture was inaugerated by heating stones red-hot and placing them in her mouth. When life was almost extinct he had her hanged. He also gave orders to have her husband hanged, and when the latter was suspended in the air he managed to get his hands in the noose, and thereby prevented strangulation. While in this position the chief cut his hand with a knife, but failed to make him remove his grasp. Other Indians interfered, and the poor fellow was freed. The evidence was very conclusive, but upon further investigation the fact was brought out that this all occurred in British Columbia; therefore our courts have no jurisdiction, the case was not brought to a trial. The prisoner was discharged with a severe reprimand by Justice Held.

IS IT A CONSPIRACY?

Menzies Returns—The Alleged Trafficker in Chinese Girls Before the Court.

Is His Prosecution to be a Sham? Only one Charge Preferred Against Him.

In the Police Court this morning Walter R. Menzies was charged with feloniously causing Loi Ho, under the age of sixteen, to be secretly confined and taken out of Canada against her will. Menzies had returned to the city from Vancouver last evening in company with Mr. W. H. Ellis, of the Colonist, who, it is believed, has been instrumental, with certain members of the police force, in bringing him back. On his arrival he was arrested, and appeared before the Hon. A. N. Richards this morning as already stated.

The "Professor" was bright and smiling and in particularly good humor with himself and his surrounding. He seemed none the worse of his temporary suspension from the pleasures of Victoria's climate and Chinatown society. He nodded approvingly to his counsel and the police and gazed around him with the confidence of a man who felt he was not without friends.

THE CASE CALLED.

The case being called, Mr. Gannaway appeared for the prisoner. Mr. Taylor appeared for the prosecution at the direction of the Mayor. Application was first made by Mr. Gannaway for an adjournment.

His Honor—The maximum penalty is seven years and you ask me to admit the man to bail without knowing anything about the facts of the case.

Mr. Gannaway—There is nothing against my client. The person who inspired the sensational article in The Times does not come forward like a good citizen and lay an information. He leaves it for the police after making the charges.

His Honor—In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the information is laid by the police.

Mr. Taylor asked that the information be amended so as to read "Kidnapping with intent."

The charge having been amended, Mr. Taylor then asked for a remand.

His Honor asked counsel for the prosecution if the prisoner's own recognizance in the sum of $1000 and two sureties in the sum of $500 each was sufficient.

Mr. Taylor assented.

Mr. Gannaway thought the bail was too large and asked Chief Bloomfield if the information was laid against the accused on the strength of certain reports or did he know personally of anything against the prisoner.

Chief Bloomfield replied that he knew nothing beyond what he had heard.

His Honor—How long has the prisoner been here.

Prof. Menzies—I have lived here for 3 years and four months. I have business interests here. Have issued a monthly publication.

His Honor—Then it should not be hard to find one thousand dollars bail.

Bail was accordingly fixed at $1000 in two sureties of $500 each and the prisoner himself in $1,000. Case remanded for one week.

NOTES ON THE CASE.

A great deal of interest is naturally being taken in the matter around town; many freely accept the action of Menzies as that of an innocent man. Others who are in a position to know maintain that he has not come back of his own free will but has been induced to return by promise of support and on the assurance that there was no case against him. The Colonist office and others were interested in getting him back.

The Times does not desire to prejudice the case against the prisoner, but it cannot help expressing its suspicions concerning the "Professor's" actions since the disclosures were first made public. He was in the city on the evening when his alleged trafficking in Chinese girls was published. He left at the first opportunity for Vancouver, and immediately on arriving there proceeded across the American boundary, leaving his valise behind him in Vancouver. He has remaind there ever since, occasionally writing letters to the papers on this side, and, it is said, communicating with the ring in this city, who have taken up his cause with a view first to injure The Times, secondly to endeavor to prove to the world that the Rev. Mr. Starr, Rev. Mr. Fraser and Mr. Gardner are nothing better than blackmailers.

Many indeed are not slow in expressing their opinion that the whole business is a conspiracy, that Menzies comes back with everything "cut and dried" for him. It is plainly stated by the police that there is no evidence to prove that Menzies took the girl out of the country without her consent and it is hinted that she will be brought back to prove that. Nothing is said about prosecuting him for abduction, for taking away a young girl without her guardian's consent. There is one solitary charge laid against him which it is admitted by those who laid it cannot be proven.

What are the facts? The "Professor" is accused of kidnapping one Chinese girl and of having sold for a consideration another before his departure from this city. The receipt for the amount, signed by Menzies in his own handwriting, is in the possession of parties in this city. All this is known to the police but nothing is said about it. This kind of thing seems sanctioned by the laws of our land so completely that the trafficker will dare to return to the country and threaten a paper which has exposed his infamous business with an action for criminal libel.

It is a pity that the prosecution of this case should be left in any way in the hands of the police. They are in a measure co-respondents with him. They have been put upon their trial for allowing him to escape. The Chief of Police held at the enquiry that he could not detain a man on the strength of a newspaper report. In court to-day he admitted that he still knew nothing against the prisoner, and that the information was laid on the strength of the report. In any event the police are thus self condemned, but especially so if Menzies is condemned.

It is worthy of notice that Mr. Gannaway who watched the case for the police at the enquiry is also counsel for Menzies. The same gentleman is reported to have procured the affidavits published in the Colonist which were intended to do service against Mr. Gardner. It is merely a co-incidence that Mr. Gannaway who has been so intimately connected with these matters during "Prof." Menzies absence should be his counsel now.

A great many regard it as unfortunate that there is not a society for the prevention of vice in the city which could take this matter in hand and see it prosecuted vigorously. Such a society could do a great deal of good at the present time where there are doubts as to the sincerity of the police. In the absence of such an organization, all good citizens should make it their business to see that no mock trial takes place, but that justice is meted out to its fullest extent. They can rest assured their services will be needed.

It is difficult to understand why the Colonist or anyone of respectability should become any ally of Mennies who at the best of times had no reputation. They certainly would not do so did they not expect to injure Mr. Gardner. They have no philanthropic motive in view. It is exceedingly unusual for people to identify themselves with men charged with heinous crimes.

At last accounts Menzies had not found bail.

HEATHEN DARKNESS.

The Incident Which Brought About the Skeena Trouble.

Rev. A. E. Green, of Naas River, writing to the Missionary Outlook in March last explains the incident which has since brought about the trouble at Hazelton. He says: "Brother Pierce has just arrived from Skeena and reports about two hundred deaths from fever in that part of the country. One of the chiefs of Pierce's village was murdered on the 1st of February by "Kitwancool Jim." The men were both heathens, and a dispute arose as to who should take the seat in the potlatch of a chief who had become blind. The chief named "Neat-equ" wanted it and Jim wanted it for his son. A few weeks after two of Jim's sons died of fever; he said they died because they were bewitched and that 'Neat-equ" had ill wished them and so announced he would kill the chief. Meeting him on a trail carrying a box of grease he shot him dead. The body was taken to Brother Pierce who had to use all his influence to prevent the Indians taking the law in their own hands. Two of the nephews of the murdered man belong to Pierce's mission and state now that only the grace of God and their missionary prevented them from killing the murderer. They are now pleased that they were so restrained and leave it in the hands of the government for adjustment."

PERSONAL.

Rev Mr Christie arrived from Nanaimo on Thursday.

T Argyle, keeper of Race Rocks lighthouse, was in the city to-day.

The famous Bairnsfather family left on the four masted schooner Puritan on Wednesday last for Mexico.

W Thistle, who broke his arm some weeks ago by falling from a load of hay, was around the city this afternoon.

Hon J W Trutch and Mrs Trutch entertained the children of Christ's Church Sunday School at Fairfield on Wednesday last.

Capt Hicks returned to this city last evening. He was engaged in piloting the Mastic and seized sealers from Wrangel to Port Townsend.

At the Occidental—Wm Tomner, G Grisbell, city; W S Thompson, city; E V Rugat, Snohomish, WT; A H Milne and wife, D Ross, J Harvey.

Mr W H Ellis, editor of the Colonist, and "Professor" Menzies, the trafficker in Chinese girls, returned together from the mainland last night. The last named individual was arrested by the police, on a charge of abducting Loi Ho, shortly after stepping ashore.

A distinguished party arrived at Vancouver on Wednesday, including Mr A M Burgess, Deputy of the Minister of the Interior, Mr Robert Sedgwick, Deputy of the Minister of Justice, and Mrs Sedgwick, Mr H H Smith, Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg. Mr T A Burgess, Mr H B W Aikman, Dominion Lands Agent, Westminster, Mr T S Higginson, Crown Timber Agent, Mr J S Dennis, D L S, and Mr H E Hume, Secretary to Mr Burgess.

Rev J M McLeod, pastor of Zion church, Charlottetown, P. E. Island, arrived in the city last evening. Mr McLeod is one of the most eloquent preachers of the maritime provinces and has one of the largest congregations in the "tight little isle." He will return by to-night's boat to Vancouver where he has been engaged to preach on Sunday, but he is enamored of Victoria and will make an effort to return and spend a few days before starting for home. Mr. McLeod, in addition to being an eloquent preacher, is something of a journalist, having been editor of the Island Guardian after the illness and subsequent demise of the late Rev W R Frame.

Funeral.

The remains of the late Anna Whitehead were interred in Ross Bay cemetery this afternoon. Rev. M. L. Rugg officiated at the residence and cemetery. A large number of friends of deceased attended the funeral.

Jubilee Hospital Sites.

It is stated that some of the committee of the Jubilee Hospital have in view three or four different sites, two on Topaze Avenue and one on Spring Ridge. The position and site of either are said to be all that could be desired, being not too far from the centre of the city.

Contraband Chinese.

A great many Chinese are smuggled across the line in Okanagan county from British America to Washington Territory. They work their way from Osoyoos lake down Okanagan river and thence down the Columbia through a number of placer mines that are monopolized by Chinese, and eventually find their way to the settlements of the whites.

More Improvements.

John Haggerty is engaged in removing a number of unsightly wooden buildings on Cormorant street, across the ravine, opposite the Colonial Hotel. Ex-Mayor J. W. Carey is the owner of the property, on which it is the intention to build two-story brick stores with basements. G. H. Moore, the contractor, will immediately commence work on the buildings. The adjoining wooden shacks should be removed, and substantial brick buildings erected in their places. The sound of the carpenter's hammer and bricklayer's trowel can be heard on nearly every business street in the city.

Eloped to Victoria.

Miss Clara C. Lowe has left her home in Seattle with Roland M. Cantrill, a blacksmith. The latter came to Seattle from Black Diamond recently and worked in the Washington Iron Works and Marco's Carriage factory. While employed at the latter place he boarded at the restaurant on Jackson street between South Second and Commercial streets. One of the waiters at the restaurant was little Clara Lowe, a daughter of the proprietor. She became strongly attached to Cantrill who finally persuaded her to run away with him to Victoria. He leaves a wife and one child who are now in California visiting friends.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

SEPTEMBER 10TH-22ND, 1888.

BRITISH COLUMBIAN COURT

The exertions to secure the display of a thorough representation of British Columbia's vast mineral wealth, immense agricultural and horticultural resources, and great facilities for developing industries and manufactures of all descriptions, having met—not only with the most encouraging approval from all parts of our Province—but also with the highest appreciation on the part of our Ontario brother-colonists (who are looking by thousands with anxiety towards our advent) I feel indeed to repeat my urgent request as expressed in my recent circular that one and all should come forward to make our British Columbia Court at Toronto an unprecedented success.

The attention of intending British Columbia Exhibitors is drawn to the following particulars:
